

Manufacturing Technician I

We are looking for a n entry level Manufacturing Technician to join Texas Microelectronics Corporation.

Multi-tasked responsibilities include but not limited to:

- Performing equipment inspections, test, troubleshoot, repair and maintenance
- Create a maintenance schedule and manage inventory for repairs
- Perform electronics and environmental testing
- Adhere to the company and production department's policies and procedures

Soft Skills

- Works independently with little or no supervision
- Maintain an organized and safe work environment
- Good communication skills supporting team activities
- Problem solving, failure analysis, electrical debugging

Required

- High School Diploma or GED or Technical Training
- Basic computer proficiency: Windows, Microsoft Office and others
- High level of attention to detail and quality work is a must

Preferred Qualifications

- Electrical test experience in an industrial environment
- Experience troubleshooting, repairing and maintaining industrial electrical equipment
- Familiar with Electrical equipment such as Power Supplies, Signal Generators, Multimeters, Automated Test Equipment
- Familiar with basic electronic circuits, can interpret drawings, schematics, procedures, work order instructions

Full Time, Non-Exempt plus benefits

- Salary $16 to $18 per hour

About Texas Microelectronics

For nearly 30 years, Texas Microelectronics Corporation (TxMC) has been producing high-temperature, high-reliability, custom hybrid circuits and multi-chip modules for industries such as Oil & Gas, Aerospace, Aerial Drones, Geothermal energy, and Communications.

TxMC offers custom hybrid circuit / multi-chip module design consultation, manufacturing, design integration, and packaging solutions that have proven ideal for high temperature R&D projects and accelerated high-performance product development.